

PALMER CLAIMANTS LITIGATION GROUP

JULY BULLETIN 2003

The latest developments to July 2003 are that we;

- have obtained an undertaking from Palmer which freezes assets to the value of £2.9 million,
- are representing you at a court hearing on 21 July to obtain more specific information about Palmer's assets and increase the value of the frozen assets to £3.2m,
- have persuaded the Metropolitan Police to assign a specific case officer to isolate the documents they are holding in relation to your case and disclose them to us,
- have obtained an extension of time for setting out the detailed allegations on your behalf,
- have obtained some further information about the availability of after the event insurance and
- decided to take steps to increase the size of the group where possible.
