Services for You and Your Family

Obtaining a visa is just the first step on your immigration journey. We work to understand your needs so we can find the right visa for you, so you can achieve your personal and business goals with the longer term in mind.

Our clients come from all areas of life – from investors and entrepreneurs, to senior executives and business owners, to distinguished talent in business, sports, art, science and technology. Whatever your reason for relocating to the UK, we'll be a guiding hand through the entire process, allowing you to focus on the other priorities of your move.

We'll work with you to investigate the options available, while taking into consideration your longer-term aspirations for residence and citizenship for you and your family. We'll work to make sure that a simple solution today won't cause you problems in the future. We can also help you gain visit visas if you're still in the consideration stages of relocation to the UK.

Our integrated teams of leading lawyers in the fields of private client, family law and residential property are ideally placed to work alongside our Immigration team. We'll help you consider any other issues, such as wealth structuring considerations where your tax strategy is of importance. You may also have fixed timelines – where we can, we'll work with you to achieve these aims.

We can also help your family by securing visas for your partner and children to accompany you. Where possible, we can do the same for extended family members and domestic staff. If you plan to relocate as an investor, our teams are on hand to provide innovative investment structures and advice from experienced financial advisers.

If you plan to come to the UK to set up a business, we can advise you on the financing required under the immigration rules and help you structure your business to ensure you're compliant with UK law. We can also introduce you to business accountants to help set up and support your business.

Services for Your Business

It can be difficult to know where to begin when your people start to move around the world. Successfully moving your team involves a thorough understanding of the legal and policy requirements, the compliance framework and government processes.

We regularly support businesses while they relocate individuals within their organisation, or are setting up operations in the UK for the first time. Whatever the size of your business, we can help to successfully get your people to the place you need them, when you need it. We can also introduce you to business accountants to help with the establishment of your business in the UK.

We have integrated teams of specialist lawyers who help with the many legal and regulatory aspects that arise for overseas businesses that are entering the UK market. These can include corporate, corporate tax, employment, commercial and possibly consumer aspects, as well as the pure immigration issues.

We'll take the time to understand your business and employee mobility needs before providing the solutions that are right for you. The immigration rules and requirements are constantly changing, so we'll provide pragmatic, commercial advice grounded in legal compliance, giving you more time to do what you need to do.

We keep you informed of developments and guidance on best practice, as well as alerting you to potential issues and opportunities to ensure your business stays fully compliant. We can also offer training seminars, and assistance with drafting mobility policies and processes.

Where things get complex, we simplify.
